COVER SHEET

Enclosure 4: Curricula Vitae

SNSB rules for this enclosure

A CV is mandatory for the principal applicant (person seeking a career position).

Please note that this enclosure, in combination with Enclosure 3, must cover all aspects of importance for an assessment of your suitability to carry out the professional work as proposed in the application, including:

- Relevant experience and relevant employment history
- Parental leave, military leave, if important for recent career development
- Year of PhD and other exams
- Other relevant information

Publications, patents, etc.

The enclosure must include a list with full references to maximum 10 publications, at least half of which have been published in the last five years. It is strongly recommended to also include a web link to the full lists of publications.

For each person, give statistics in the form of the total number of publications in the following categories, specifying numbers for both open access and non-open access:

1. Peer-reviewed articles
2. Peer-reviewed conference contributions with results that have not been published in any other form
3. Review articles, book chapters, books
4. Patents
5. Self-developed, generally available computer programmes
6. Popular scientific articles

Size of this enclosure (excluding this cover sheet)

Maximum 4 pages per person.
